The Department will be directed by a Superintendent who shall be appointed by and be subject to the orders of the Board of Directors, Brigade of the American Revolution. The Superintendent may appoint internal committees as needed and will be responsible for the proper operation of the Department as defined by the Board of Directors. This will include the transportation of necessary materials, their proper installation, and subsequent display and use - subject to authentication by the Brigade Inspector.

Any member of the Civilian Class Membership may serve as a Board Member at Large on any Board of Directors if they are members-in-good-standing; however, if they are solely members of the Civilian Class Membership, they shall assume no military rank. Like regular member units in good standing, the Civilian Class Membership will be entitled to one (1) vote in Brigade voting. [Ratified 12 April 1975; 12 April 1980; 31 January 1990]

- 6. No person or persons shall be denied membership in the Brigade because of sex, race, creed, or national origin. [As amended 31 January 1990]
- 7. Each new unit shall go through the following three (3) stages of membership, and must conform to the following requirements and conditions:
  - a. Upon application to the Brigade for membership, a unit shall select, with the approval of the Board of Directors, an original unit that participated in the American Revolution and shall pattern itself on that unit, adopt its name, and prepare to reproduce its appearance accurately. Upon receipt of such payments as required in Article IX, with the Board of Directors' consent such units shall become Applicant Members, but may not vote in Brigade elections, nor discharge firearms at any Brigade function.
  - b. Upon the acceptance by the Board of Directors of the Brigade Inspector's Probationary Report, an Applicant Member Unit shall be advanced to Probationary Membership. All membership dues and assessments shall be required to fulfill this advance in status, and the unit shall be advanced to Probationary Membership with all rights and privileges of Full Membership. However, the Board of Directors may, upon finding that there has been a serious error in safety, conduct, competence, or chronic failure to participate in Brigade functions by the Probationary Unit, suspend or expel a Probationary Unit from membership in the organization.

- c. After a Probationary period of at least one (1) year, but no more than two (2) years, the Board of Directors may advance a unit as before defined. A Full Unit must participate at two (2) consecutive company firelock matches or other major functions during its Probationary period.
8. Field Musick units shall consist of four (4) or more authentically dressed or uniformed and accoutered males over the age of twelve (12) who shall play authentic commands, duty calls, and martial music of the American Revolution.
    - a. Bands of Musick shall be uniformed as artillery musicians, unless another band is known; and their designation shall be associated with an artillery unit, with whom - if such exists - there need be no official association or affiliation. This is subject to the concurrence of the first unit to exist bearing the name.
    - b. Individuals, over the age of twelve (12) may join existing units as Field Musick Members.
  9. Under extraordinary conditions, and for the specific welfare and advancement of the Brigade, individual persons may be attached to any existing unit. All rights and responsibilities of membership shall apply to these individuals, except the privilege of the vote normally accorded to a Member Unit. Acceptance of this status waives the right to vote.
  10. The Board of Directors may appoint very deserving persons to a status of honorary membership in the Brigade with the title of "Gentleman Volunteer", or "Lady Volunteer", respectively.
    - a. These "Volunteers" shall receive proper notification of appointment with a certificate and membership card. This category of membership shall be exempt from regular dues and assessments, but is specifically entitled to receive any Brigade publications, for which no charge is made to regular members.
    - b. "Volunteers" shall have no vote within the Brigade, nor shall they be allowed to bear arms or to discharge arms without the express consent of the Brigade for each occasion.
    - c. "Volunteers" shall be permitted and encourage to wear period clothing approved by the Brigade Inspector, and to participate in Brigade activities.
    - d. The honorary status of "Gentleman Volunteer" or "Lady Volunteer" may be revoked by the Board of Directors for cause, by a two-thirds vote.

11. Membership shall be contingent also upon timely payment of such dues and other assessments by the Board of Directors as are found necessary to assess the member organizations or its individual members for the maintenance of the Brigade.
12. All classes of membership are contingent also upon the accepted standards of normal conduct. Severe breaches of safety, endangering others as well as oneself, misconduct, or any deviation from membership standards, are causes for suspension or expulsion of any individual or member organizations from the Brigade.

C. Regions

1. To further the objectives of the Brigade through localized activities, the Board of Directors is empowered to designate Brigade Regions. These Regions may be designated with or without regard to geographical boundaries or political subdivisions. All portions or segments of any given Region must be in physical proximity to the others and cannot be separated by the physical boundaries of another Region. The boundaries of any Region will be clearly defined in writing as hereafter provided for.
2. Four (4) or more Brigade Member Units, one of which must have Full Membership status, may apply for a Brigade Regional Charter.
3. Upon petition for a Region, the Board of Directors shall at its discretion, consider the merits thereof and may issue a Charter to the Region. The Charter will outline the boundaries and functions of the Region. The Charter shall further provide for Regional Officers to officiate under the terms of the Charter, the manner in which such officers are elected or appointed, their specific and general duties, and a proper outline of staff functions. In addition, the Charter shall provide for a minimum number of Regional Meetings and activities.
4. The Board of Directors will include in any and all Charters standard provisions for amendment and revocation of Charters.
5. The provisions of a Charter notwithstanding, in no way will the Constitution and By-Laws of the Brigade be superseded, nor the authority of the Board of Directors, National Officers, or total membership - wherein shall remain all authority not specifically delegated by the Charter.
6. The Board of Directors, in lieu of granting a Charter, at its discretion may create an uncharted Region and provide for necessary administration thereof, where it is not possible or desirable to grant a permanent Charter.
7. When designated, a Region may be larger than immediately necessary to encompass its founders. To subdivide an existing Region, at least four (4) Member Units are required to form a new Region; and the existing Region must retain at least four (4) Member Units. Division of such a Region, where there is any dissatisfaction on the part of the membership of the original Region, who would retain the old Charter, must have the concurrence of a majority of the Board of Directors.
