

Revolutionary Encampment at Chase Farms and Hearthside House

Sept. 10-11 2022 Lincoln RI

Brigade of the American Revolution

18th Century military encampments ,Patrols, incursions and civilian programs.
Presented by the Brigade of the American Revolution .

The Brigade of the American Revolution announces a return to New England! It's been a while since the BAR has been in Rhode Island for a full traditional Brigade event. The encampment will take place at the beautiful 80-acre Chase farm Park in Lincoln RI.

The Brigade has been invited by the site host, Hearthside House, to provide a historical experience and awareness of the up and coming 250th celebrations of the American War for Independence to the citizens of Lincoln and Rhode Island. This will be an expansive public show ranging from tactical patrols to an 18th-century wedding ceremony on Sunday! Two of our very own members will be renewing their vows! There will also be guest speakers include Don Hagist and Robert Geake. And of course, Jollifications Saturday evening as we continue to celebrate our 60th birthday!

Hearthside house will also host The Brigade of the American Revolution Civilian class Members for a highly-interactive Civilian demonstrations. This event will provide a personal, close-up look at the conflict, life of the common soldier and life as a civilian inhabitant during these tumultuous times . The B.A.R. will conduct narrated demonstrations, offer experiences for adults and children and go on patrols with local Miitia Groups and learn how to perform the manual of arm (Marching , musket drills) and join the militia! listen to educational talks throughout the weekend given by world renowned Historians to give you a better understanding of the sacrifices made for the freedoms we enjoy today.
